GEOFF OCRAN MEN'S TEAM HEAD COACH

AFTER FIVE STRAIGHT DRAWS, we've just notched up two wins in a week against May & Baker and Hackney Wick. So now we are on a bit of a run that we always thought was possible to match our recent performances.

The two victories really show how we are maturing as a team in terms of managing games with back to back clean sheets. It was also the first time in the team's history that we have been able to name the same squad consecutively.

That sets us up nicely for the eagerly awaited and first ever Clapton derby tonight. When the fixtures were released, many were looking out for this one and have made extra concessions to be there in what is a historic occasion.

For those of us who have been involved since 2018 and beyond, it's a great chance to celebrate our journey to date. Starting from an idea in an alleyway to selling thousands of shirts worldwide. From playing on numerous 4G pitches and parks to now owning our own ground.

Our remit and ceiling as a club doesn't stop at winning tonight as we have so much we want to do and achieve on and off the pitch. So it's vitally important that we go into the game with a sense of pride of what we have built. Regardless of the result, we are still winners with a bright future.

If you find yourself in the West End this autumn with a few minutes to spare, a trip to the recently opened Centre for British Photography will find you coming face to face with some familiar CCFC friends. Among images from some of Britain's leading photographers is a photo of joy and emotion on our beloved Scaffold.

The Centre recently ran a competition for young photographers aged 14 to 21 to submit an image, and 150 words on the theme of community. Young Clapton Community photographer George entered an image which he called 'Collective Joy' together with a summary of what community means to him. From hundreds of entries, his photo was selected as one of the 6 winning entries and is now displayed in the Centre's entrance foyer.

George has been photographing Clapton CFC matches for the last 4 years and has been helped immensely by the pool of very talented senior photographers at the club. While he enjoys taking action shots of the matches, he has recently found himself documenting the community that makes up our club.

The Centre for British Photography can be visited Wednesday to Sunday and entrance is free. It is currently hosting 6 exhibitions including Charlie Phillips - 50 Years of African Caribbean Funerals in London and Dorothy Bohm - London Street Markets. It is located at 49 Jermyn Street SW1Y 6LX.

BRING YOUR PLANTS

From spider plants to cacti, cheese plants to aloe vera, the Old Spotted Dog clubhouse is looking for more greenery. Bring in any unwanted indoor plants on Clapton CFC matchdays or at events and we'll take good care of them

BLACK HISTORY MONTH WALK

Clapton CFC member Peter Ashan will lead a freedom walk in Leytonstone as part of Waltham Forest Council's Programme of events celebrating Black History Month on the morning of Sunday, October 29. Tickets are free and available here: bit.ly/BHM-walk

OUTSIDER EVENT

On Saturday, November 11 Clapton Punks will be putting on a DIY Arts event at the Old Spotted Dog Clubhouse featuring punk, pints, stalls, short films, music, zines etc. with friends, The Local.

They would be really keen to hear from people in the fan scene who are interested in demonstrating some of their work at this event. They are particularly keen to hear from people of colour, women, LGBTQ+, neurodivergent people, and people involved in politics or subculture.

Please email claptonpunks@gmail.com or via instagram @ClaptonPunks if you are interested in showing something, or if you have any links with people who might.

DOUBLE THE ACTION THIS WEEKEND

Our hugely busy October home schedule at the Old Spotted Dog Ground concludes this weekend with a double header of home games. On Saturday, the men's first team host Enfield Borough (kick off 3pm) then on Sunday at 2pm it's the women's first team in action with Dulwich Hamlet Reserves the visitors. Then we should have a bit of a breather for a few weeks!

THURLOW NUNN
EASTERN COUNTIES LEAGUE
DIVISION ONE SOUTH

OUR VISITORS TONIGHT ARE ONE of the former tenants of our own historic Old Spotted Dog Ground, alongside the likes of London Bari, Hackney Wick, Woodford Town, Canning Town and St Bartholomew's FC. After a short spell ground sharing with Southend Manor in 2019, they have made a new home at the Terence McMillan Stadium, part of the Newham Leisure Centre in Plaistow.

PREVIOUS MEETINGS

This will be our first meeting.

FORM GUIDE

Manager Mustafa Bashkal and director of football Qayum Shakoor returned for a second spell in charge in late August and have overseen an upturn in form. They have three wins - against Burnham Ramblers, Hutton and Hoddesdon Town, three teams we have played and failed to beat.

PLAYERS TO WATCH

Non-league veteran Lee Flavin, who made one appearance for the CCFC development team two seasons ago.

> TAKING IT BACK - the day we got the keys to the derelict OSD ground July 2020

BACK TO LIFE, BACK TO REALITY

WE'VE NOT HAD A CHANCE to celebrate a flurry of recent anniversaries in the last few weeks because there have been so many games.

- » Five years since our first men's first team home game
- » Four years since our first women's first team game

- » Three years since our purchase of the Old Spotted Dog Ground
- » Two years since we made Women's FA Cup history
- » One year since we began playing competitively at the OSD

There have been three promotions, three cup final wins, two league titles, two European away days.

But the biggest achievement has undoubtedly been bringing back the derelict OSD to life. So we thought now would be a good chance to take a step back and look at what we've achieved...

^ WE GOT THE KEYS! - celebrating with a bottle of OSD Prosecco Socialism July 2020

^ MANY HANDS - make back breaking work March 2021

^ HEAVY METAL - Scarification September 2020

> HOME GROWN - assessing the task ahead to get the ground ready for football June 2020

> THE CLUBHOUSE - so much hard work has been put into making a space we can all enjoy and be proud of < VICARAGE FIELD - the first Isthmian League ground to host a game under lights in 1958.

> GRANLEIGH ROAD - where 10,000 saw Leytonstone play Nigeria in 1949.

> LYNN ROAD - Ilford 17,000 saw France play India in the 1948.

EAST, EAST, EAST LONDON'S LOST GROUNDS

THE OLD SPOTTED DOG IS THE OLDEST SENIOR FOOTBALL GROUND IN London, surviving while other non-league grounds in the area are just a memory. Many iconic grounds all within ten miles of The Dog have been either flattened by bulldozers or left to rot. Their loss is due to various factors, most notably debt, neglectful owners, and the pressure on local councils to build more housing. Here are some of the most prominent.

LYNN ROAD - ILFORD.

A record crowd of 17,000 saw France play India in the 1948 Olympic Games at Ilford's ground in Newbury Park. Less than 30 years later, Lynn Road was no more. Plans to build a new stadium at Fairlop were abandoned due to insufficient funds. Ilford moved in with Leytonstone at Granleigh Road, while Lynn Road was demolished to make way for housing.

GRANLEIGH ROAD - LEYTONSTONE 1894-1886.

10,000 saw Leytonstone play Nigeria on 8/9/1949. An amalgamated Leytonstone-Ilford played its last game in E11 at the end of the 1985/86 season then relocated to Walthamstow Avenue's Green Pond Road ground as Granleigh Road made way for housing.

GREEN POND ROAD - WALTHAMSTOW AVENUE. 1918 - 1989.

Green Pond Road, less than a mile away from CCFC's former temporary home at Wadham Lodge, once saw 21,708 pass through its turnstiles in 1948 to watch the Turkey v China Olympic Games fixture. By the time the ground had given way to housing, the hosts had morphed into Redbridge Forest.

> GREEN POND ROAD - Walthamstow close to CCFC's former temporary home at Wadham Lodge

BROOKLANDS - ROMFORD.

Football had been played on the site in North Romford since 1885. A reformed Romford moved into the site in 1929 and developed it into one of the finest non league grounds in the South East. Plans to develop the ground into a 40000 venue to host Football League football never materialised as the club fell into the doldrums in the late 1960s. Housing replaced football as the debt ridden club vacated in 1977.

SNAKES LANE - WOODFORD TOWN.

They vacated in 1993 to begin a nomadic existence that included the Old Spotted Dog. Snakes Lane awaits redevelopment, with a few visible signs that football was once played there - floodlight pylons and a turnstile.

THE MANORWAY

Beckton United and East Ham United played at this ground in Beckton, which is now housing.

NEWGATE STREET

Chingford Town had a brief existence in the Southern League (1947 - 1950) while playing here, near Highams Park. Now overgrown, it has not been renovated but, there's scant evidence of football being played

VICARAGE FIELD - BARKING FC. 1884-1973.

Located in Barking town centre, this was the first Isthmian League ground to host a game under lights in 1958. Barking were forced to relocate to the purpose built Mayesbrook Park in 1973, and Vicarage Field is now a shopping centre.

HARE AND HOUNDS - LEYTON.

The Lea Bridge Road ground closed its doors for the last time in 2011. Leyton, in residence since the early twentieth century, had fallen into unmanageable debt and folded. The ground has been left to rot since.

FOREST GATE'S PRE-GAME INDEPENDENT PUB GUIDE

AS THE EVENINGS DRAW IN, THE air becomes chillier and night games return to the Old Spotted Dog, a pre or post-game stop somewhere cosy becomes ever more important.

Lucky for us, E7 is blessed with some great little boozers to warm up in. Anyone who has passed through Forest Gate or Wanstead Park stations will already be familiar with the Fox & Hounds and Forest Tavern. Each owned by chains, these side-by-side pubs cater for very different tastes (and budgets).

While many a Clapton fan and away supporter will often migrate from one of the two directly to the clubhouse, after a thirsty journey on the Lizzy or Overground, there are a number of independent locals in Forest Gate that generally get overlooked on matchdays.

Obviously, it should go without saying, local pubs provide a vital outlet for working class areas and different communities. If you're not part of that community or a regular, you're essentially a guest of the people who value the pub as an important part of where they live. Please walk in with respect and don't take the piss.

With that said, here are a few pubs close to our beloved home that you might want to try.

THE WANSTEAD TAP

Distance from OSD: 1.2 miles.
Closest station: Wanstead Park.
Price of Premium beer: £5.75

If your heart sinks when confronted with the choice of 5 different lagers and a cider, then the Wanstead Tap is probably the direction you want to travel. It is a hefty 25 minute walk to The Dog, although the 58 and 330 buses will take you most of the way, at least to the junction of Woodgrange and Romford Road.

The Tap is a bar under a railway arch and peddles a dynamic selection of trendy beers from their backstreet location near Wanstead Flats. While this might sound a bit upmarket, The pub has been an active part of its local community for years and hosts numerous, very sound comedy, talks and readings in partnership with Newham Bookshop. Watch out for Jack Leslie, The Lion Who Never Roared, in November, about the black footballer from Canning Town who had an England call up, and was deselected, in the 1920s.

THE BAY TREE

Distance from OSD: 0.5 miles.
Closest station:
Stratford/Forest Gate.
Price of Premium beer: £5.50

Technically just over the border in E15, the Bay Tree is a mere 10 minute walk from the Spotted Dog, directly up Ham Park Road. What makes this pub remarkable is just how out of context it is from the surrounding area. Recently refurbished, it is bizarrely plush inside, making it look more like a bar in the West End than a back street in Stratford. The smartly dressed bartender even used one of those scooping tools to manicure the froth on my San Miguel.

The Bay Tree is a Lithuanian-owned pub, which seems to have regular live music on. It has a screen for football and was very quiet when we popped in on Saturday during the early kick off. There is a good tradition of Lithuanian bars in East London over the last 15 or so years and this one seems to have had some money spent on it. The beer selection is very lager-heavy, so any real ale heads or crafty types will likely be disappointed.

THE FOREST GATE HOTEL

Distance from OSD: 1.3 miles.
Closest station:
Wanstead Park/Manor Park.
Price of Premium beer: £5

As backstreet as they come. Similar to the Rising Sun, The Forest Gate Hotel is a surviving monument to a fast disappearing culture of neighbourhood pubs in East London. It's another historic, grand building, with ornate features and high ceilings, although it does give form to the phrase "rough round the edges" (in every sense).

The route from the pub to the ground is the least straightforward on this list. Google Maps has it as a 28 minute walk, without a direct bus route. There is a pool table, jukebox and plenty of dark corners to crash out, though. You can even book a room upstairs if you're really knackered. The drink selection is basically your classic pub staples and you won't get food, unless you order breakfast.

THE RISING SUN

Distance from OSD: 1.1 miles.
Closest station:
Woodgrange Park/Manor Park.
Price of Premium beer: £5 (Bring Cash)

On the opposite end of E7, the Rising Sun is a grand old pub building in the northern territories of Romford Road. It is an Indian-owned boozer and very much serves that community, sitting between Forest Gate, Ilford and East Ham. Although it's another 25-ish minute walk to the OSD, the 25, 425 & 86 will drop you at the end of Disraeli Road.

There are 4 well kept pool tables in a large back room, dart board and screens for live sport. Don't go in thinking "Indian cuisine", however, as they don't do food and they don't do any of your fancy beers either (There is draft Cobra). The Rising Sun is split between 2 bars. It wasn't very busy when we visited before an evening game and had a strangely tranquil atmosphere for that time of night.

THE RED HOUSE

Distance from OSD: 335ft.
Closest station: Forest Gate/Plaistow.
Price of Premium beer: £5.50

Officially called St Anthony's Catholic Club, The Red House, as it's known locally, is a private members club located a full 2 minute walk from the Spotted Dog gates and which has historically opened its doors to Clapton fans on matchdays.

Highly unassuming from the outside, tucked away on a side street, The Red House is a genuinely beautiful place to have a drink in. The bar is cosy and comfortable, the garden is arguably the nicest outdoor space in the area, while the building itself looks like an old stately home. All run by a community of local people who have been part of Forest Gate for generations.

HONOURABLE MENTIONS

The Black Lion in Plaistow (0.9 miles from the Spotted Dog). Traditionally a West Ham pub when they're at home, it's a nice local, Irish-run boozer. Although pints were a bit on the pricey side on the last visit.

King Edward VII on Stratford Broadway (1.0 miles from the OSD), again not the cheapest, but it's a historical, grade II listed building, with plenty of space and pub food.
