GEOFF OCRAN MEN'S TEAM HEAD COACH

OUR FIRST HOME WIN OF THE SEASON LAST WEEK extended our unbeaten home record and a great way to start life at Step 6. It was easily our best performance of the season so far and we should have had the game wrapped up in the first half with the chances we had.

Despite St Margaretsbury drawing level against the run of play, the players didn't panic and just kept moving the ball as we knew more chances would come. That's our philosophy and that's the brand of football we will always try to impose at any level. It also shows the confidence and belief within the squad at the moment.

7 points out of 9 is something we would have definitely taken before the start of the season and this gave us a chance to rotate slightly midweek in the cup away at Hutton.

Basildon Town finished second last season so it will be another good early test to see how we measure up. However, we don't fear anyone at home and will be looking to play on the front foot as always to keep climbing the league.

NEW MEN'S FIRST TEAM SIGNINGS

FIVE WHO HAVE MADE THEIR DEBUTS SO FAR...

JOSHUA GEORGE

26-year-old ball-playing centre-back who played for Sporting Bengal and Barkingside last season and Romford, West Essex and Glebe before then.

ADAM SIDKY

Former Worthing and Waltham Abbey defender, aged 29.

JAMES GOLDRING

Calm, deep-lying midfielder, good passer both short and long, previously of North Greenford United aged 29.

CALLUM HOSIER

Former Horsham YMCA and Burgess Hill Town midfielder aged 28.

JEFFREY TWUMASI

Combative all-action central midfielder with a crunching tackle. Aged 28 but a non-league veteran with plenty of experience, having played at North Greenford United, Bedfont Sports, Molesey, Guildford City FC, and Hanworth Villa.

AND FOUR WE HAVEN'T SEEN IN THE LEAGUE YET...

ADIL ALI

Talented centre-back, aged 20 previously with Barking Youth. Adil is combative in defence and talented in possession with a great ability to play a pass.

JOEL AKUWUDIKE

Young, pacey winger with a wicked cross and a stinging shot. Only 20 but has played against us several times having been with Sporting Hackney since 2018. Has been injured this season.

PATRICK BAIRD

Attacking midfielder, 23, whose international clearance has come through having played Lowland League football for Edinburgh University for four seasons. Expert in dribbling, short passing and tight spaces.

SAMUEL MARCHI

A left-footed centre-back or left-back who is 6ft 3in tall. The former West Ham youth player has recently returned from playing in America, including semi-pro Goshen City.

WOMEN'S FIRST TEAM UPDATE

The women's first team will play two friendlies at the Old Spotted Dog Ground ahead of the season start. Tomorrow they will face Luton Town Reserves (kick off 2pm) then London Seaward Reserves on Tuesday (kick off 7.45pm). The season begins next Sunday (August 20) at 2pm with the opener against Sport London e Benfica here at the OSD. Coach announcements to follow!

DEVELOPMENT FRIENDLY TOMORROW

The men's development team are playing a friendly against higher division FC Nyva tomorrow at 10.30am at Hackney Marshes. All are welcome to watch ahead of the new season.

PITCH RULES

Old Spotted Dog Trust need to request all spectators keep off the pitch before games and at half-time. They need to carry out safety pitch inspections before play begins, which are voided if people have gone on the pitch. Kids can still play on the pitch (weather permitting) after games, though!

REFUGEE CUP

A Refugee Cup nine-a-side tournament hosted by Celtic FC Foundation is taking place next Saturday (August 19). Among the teams will be Renaissance FC, featuring two CCFC men's development team players and coached by our own Ellie Guedella. It's at Mabley Green, Hackney, and your support is welcome. There's no men's first team game that day!

BASILDON TOWN FC

THURLOW NUNN EASTERN COUNTIES LEAGUE DIVISION ONE SOUTH

BASILDON TOWN FC - NOT TO BE confused with Isthmian League side Basildon United - are the Essex town's oldest club, founded in 1946.

They have played under two different names for three seasons - South Basildon & Vange FC when they first formed, then as Basildon & Pitsea in the mid-Sixties.

They were a major force in the Essex Olympian League in recent years, but were unable to be promoted due to the ground grading of their Basildon Sport & Leisure Ground.

So in 2021/22 they moved to ground share with new town rivals United and promotion came at the first attempt when they were runners-up in the EOFL and were promoted to the Eastern Counties League.

In their first campaign at Step 6 last season, they finished second again, an agonising point behind champions Frenford, and then lost in the play-offs to Stanway Pegasus.

Player-manager Marcus Bowers, formerly of Basildon United, Great Wakering Rovers, Tilbury and Witham Town, scored a whopping 28 goals last season. He was this division's second top goalscorer, with strike partner Harry Brown in the top ten himself with 18.

This season Bas have moved to ground share at East Thurrock United's Rookery Hill. They've continued the good form going unbeaten so far and will be one of the promotion favourites.
