MEN'S HEAD COACH

Saturday's home match against Hoddesdon Town was a routine win in the end, but it felt like a game we could have historically slipped up on. Pretty much everyone in the crowd of 1057 would have turned up with the expectation of a comfortable home win given the two teams' recent form. However, as we all know, football often plays by its own rules and over-confidence and complacency could have been our undoing.

Getting an early goal is imperative in these sorts of games as it's a typical confidence booster and settles any anxiety. Being 2-0 up within the first 15 minutes, and 3-0 at half-time, the key was to continue to push on and add to the scoreline which we duly did to make it 4-0. Unfortunately our momentum was disrupted by more injuries and then our over-eagerness to add to the scoresheet led to us conceding in injury time. Job done, nonetheless.

Tonight's opponents Rayleigh Town seem to have the same sort of profile to teams we have lost to already this season so it's very important we are not naive to fall for the same game plan again. The first goal will be crucial in this game as Rayleigh don't give much away and we always intend to start on the front foot.
