OPPONENTS

AS LONDON

Welcome to today's visiting players, coaches, supporters and officials

AS London formed in 1991 as Park View and originally drew players from London's Ghanaian community. They joined the Middlesex County Football League Division One Central & East and won it in the first season - exactly like we did a decade later. Since then they've progressed through the levels and narrowly missed out on promotion again last season, losing in the play-offs. Last season was their first under their new name, which stands for All Stars London.

Form guide

AS London sit in 11th place, although since new manager Frankie Sinclair took over three games into the season their form would put them closer to the play-off places.

Previous meetings

Earlier this season AS London beat us on penalties here in the League Cup after a 0-0 draw in 90 minutes. We did the double over Park View two seasons ago, winning 4-0 at home then 5-2 away at their New River Stadium.

Player/s to watch

Former Watford Charlton Athletic, Burnley, and 2012 Olympics player Marvin Sordell made his AS London debut last week - and scored two. Still only 34, he joined from Rayners Lane two divisions up where he bagged six in 13 goals last season.

COUNTY CUP DRAW

Clapton CFC Men's First Team will meet Sporting Hackney in the second round of the London Senior Trophy. The East London derby will take place at the Old Spotted Dog Ground, with the date to be confirmed but will likely be a Tuesday night in November. The rest of the competition has already been drawn and if we progress we will be away from home in each round.

NEW SIGNINGS

Welcome to two new players who joined in October. Exciting young winger David Makisi, formerly of Bridon Ropes and Lewisham Borough, already has two goals in five games. Versatile defender Brad Robinson made his debut last Saturday having made 200 appearances for Edgware Town, Cockfosters and Colney Heath. Meanwhile fan favourites Arthur Wright and Lewis Owiredo are back in training and might be back in the squad soon.

GEOFF OCRAN

MEN'S HEAD COACH

Last Saturday, we racked up another tricky away win against May & Baker, who I expect to pick up points against our rivals. It was a typical Step 6 non-league game where we were tested physically and had to deal with a high percentage of long balls in behind. They let us have the ball so we had to be patient in the first half but once we scored the all important first goal, there was only ever going to be one winner.

That win took us up to third in the table after 13 games, but with games in hand on the two teams above us, Newbury Forest and Lymore Gardens. So we just have to maintain this form until the next checkpoint which is the half-way mark, 20 games in.

Next up today is AS London, who beat us on penalties in the League Cup despite us dominating the game. Dynamics will be different as we will be slightly stronger but I expect them to be better too with lots of new signings bedding in.

Confidence and morale in the camp is high with the squad being used effectively with the growing injury list. I'm always confident of a positive result at home as long as we don't start to fall into complacency. We always need to have the mentality of playing with a point to prove and respecting the opposition to continue this streak.
