OPPONENTS

HUTTON FC

Welcome to today's visiting players, coaches, supporters and officials

The Tons were formed in 1928 and are one of the largest clubs in Essex with 70 teams. Their men's first team groundshare at Billericay Town and have risen up the divisions at the same time as us. Both were promoted from step 7 in the same year and of course Hutton were promoted as champions last season while we joined them by winning the play-offs.

Form guide

Hutton have played one league game, losing 1-0 at Harwich & Parkeston. They're through in the BBC Essex Senior Cup but out of the Men's FA Cup against higher division Grays Athletic.

Previous meetings

Last season we won 3-0 away with goals from Flavien Stierlen (2) and Fred Taylor, then drew at home 2-2 with Sam Cook and Fred again scoring. Two seasons ago we lost 2-1 away in the league cup, 3-2 away in the league and drew 1-1 at home. Our first competitive home fixture was against Hutton in September 2018 in the BBC Essex Premier Cup, losing 5-4.

Player/s to watch

Former CCFC midfielder Noah Salama has joined Hutton this season. Classy winger Jonny Ashman is a former Old Spotted Dog Ground favourite.

MORE NEW SIGNINGS

A few programmes ago, we unveiled the first batch of the new Men's First Team signings - the returning Samba Badjana plus Rafael Da Mata, Tevis Panariti, Samir Sedaoui, Adam Sokhal, Gideon Ssonko.

Here are the other new faces who have joined the squad and made their debuts this season.

Matthew Abebrese

The 24-year-old striker has played professionally in Ghana and was also called up to the U20 national team. Matthew can also play off the wing and likes to put on a show with goals and assists.

Daniel Adjei

The 27-year-old is an experienced defender who is calm on the ball and loves to get stuck in. He has previously played at Bushey Sports Club, Edgware Town, Stotfold, Harpenden and Shefford Town & Campton.

Tiere Beaupierre

A strong, ball-playing defender at right-back or centre-back who has played at Ryan FC, Buckhurst Hill and Redbridge FC before. Manager Geoff Ocran admitted he'd thrown the 18-year-old in at the deep end but his first performances have been 'outstanding' and showed he can compete at this level.

FIRST AIDERS STEP FORWARD

Are you trained in first aid? Get your "Clapton First Aider" badge!

As a 100% fan owned and run club, keeping the Old Spotted Dog Ground safe, welcoming, and healthy for everyone on matchdays relies on our community looking out for one another.

We want to give first aid trained fans an official badge and health and safety information to help keep our community safe on match days.

Wearing the badge simply lets fellow supporters know you're trained and willing to lend a hand with basic first aid if the need arises.

Whether you come to every match or once in a while, every extra pair of qualified hands helps keep our ground safe for all.

GEOFF OCRAN

MEN'S FIRST TEAM MANAGER

It came down to a last minute goal-line clearance to prevent us securing a replay last week in the Men's FA Cup against Concord Rangers.

Yes, we will be slightly disappointed with the goals conceded on the day but we were more than happy with the performance and how we matched them in every department right until the final whistle.

You add a bit of Noah Adejokun magic to any team and you always have a chance which he demonstrated with the solo goal. If Lewis Owiredu had converted his chance with the score level, who knows what might have been but unfortunately we exit the FA Cup for this season.

Squad wise we are looking stronger after each game as we have Nathan Cook and Adam Sidky back with Julian Austin also returning shortly. So it's just a matter of time before we pick up our league form but as with everything this season it will have to be earned.

Our previous games against Hutton have always been action packed eventful affairs and I expect nothing less with an opportunity to put some points on the board at stake to climb the league table.

MATCH REPORT

22.08.26 – CLAPTON CFC MIT

1-2 Clapton CFC lose against
Concord Rangers FC

Clapton CFC bowed out of their debut foray in the Men's FA Cup with a heartbreaking late defeat to Concord Rangers in the Preliminary Round.

CCFC matched their higher-tiered visitors from Canvey Island tackle for tackle, coming back from a goal down to level through a wonder strike from Noah Adejokun and have chances to win it.

Adejokun, dual signed with Cannons Wood, was back for his first Clapton appearance of the season while midfielder Nathan Cook also made a welcome return to the line-up for the first time in 2026/27.

Just 4 minutes in, Samir Sedaoui drew a sharp save from Concord Rangers goalkeeper Charlie Brown with a curling free-kick. Four minutes later, Cook turned nicely on the edge of the box and tested the keeper once more.

Concord threatened in the 29th minute when CCFC goalkeeper Jack Francis made a reaction save, only for Toheeb Elegushi to nod the rebound off the post and wide.

A lengthy stoppage for an injury to Azariah George-Lawal resulted in 10 full minutes of added time. And in that tenth minute of stoppage time, Concord struck the opening blow. A free-kick cross was headed back across goal, where Connor Hart bundled it home.

It didn't feel like game over, despite the visitors being ahead and boasting a 100% record in the division above so far this season. And in the 65th minute, Adejokun picked up a long ball from Cook, cut inside onto his right foot, and unleashed a magnificent curling effort off the inside of the post.

The home side came agonisingly close to taking the lead in the 75th minute. Sub Lewis Owiredure found himself through on goal but his lofted chip over the onrushing keeper sailed just over the cross bar.

With the tie seemingly heading for a midweek replay, both sides pushed for a winner. In the 81st minute, Concord's Kai Torres rose highest to head home a corner and restore the Beach Boys' lead.

Clapton threw everything forward in the closing stages and a chaotic goalmouth scramble inside the Concord penalty area almost yielded a dramatic equaliser in added time, but the visitors managed to clear their lines.
